

THE PANTHER POST

"Sponsored by The New Lexington 21st Century After School Programs."

ANNOUNCEMENT

Junction Elementary BOX TOPS

Mrs. Freeman's special education class at Junction City Elementary is helping the school with collecting box tops from every class each month. Once we have these collected them, we get into groups and we begin counting them from each teacher. Once we have them counted we will see who has the most from each grade. We are using our math skills to help our school earn money. So please help us out by sending in those box tops.

NLE WELCOMES SERGEANT NEWLON AND SERGEANT BRIGGS OUR HOMETOWN HEROES

Sergeant Newlon and Sergeant Briggs visiting the third grade classrooms at New Lex Elementary after 9/11. Students agreed that the deputies in our community were our hometown heroes.

Jessica Wilson's Class

New Lexington Elementary spends a half an hour every other Friday learning about having good character and being a good citizen during C.A.M.P. time. CAMP stands for character, attitude, motivation and positivity). The first graders learned about September 11th and the first responders who were there that day. Then we invited a first responder from our area to talk about what it means to take care of others.

JDRF

Each year, JDRF One Walk brings together more than 900,000 people across the country to change the future for everyone living with Type 1 Diabetes (T1D). This year the walk will take place on October 1, 2017. This will be the second year we are walking for Trace Schooley. Trace is a third grader at New Lexington Elementary and one of several New Lexington students fighting this disease. Fellow students, teachers, nurses and administrators showed their support by wearing their "Team Trace" t-shirts.

COOKIES BRING EVERYONE TOGETHER

Breanna Lanning, Hunter Craig, Zane Ortman, Sydney Hambel, Ryan Gee, Joey Wilson, Selina Shank. Students making sugar cookies to promote FCCLA membership drive.

Hall of Fame Inductees

Travis Cook, Don Poling, Alyssa Wolfe, Debbie Barnette Russell, and Jack Park. Congratulations Inductees!

New Lexington Elementary

New Lexington Elementary, Jonna Gibson's Second Grade wore blue to support Lincoln.

Compost Any Time of the Year!

Caiden Russell and Calista Sarf are building a compost bin as Landen Bebout and Anthony Stidom watch.

Morgan Russell's 4th grade students at New Lexington Elementary School learn to compost with Katrina Carpenter. Katrina is the Education Specialist with Perry Waste Reduction and Recycling.

NLMS Student's of the Month Celebrate by having lunch at Pizza Place! Thank You Pizza Place for the fantastic lunch! You're the BEST!!

Pictured (left to right): Alex Posey, Katelynn New, Courtney Jones, Deb Wood, Alexis Abram, Andrea Groves
Absent = Helena Valentine and Sammy Hymus
Thanks to the Pizza Place for hosting the September Students (& Employee) of the Month.

Tabitha Simpson's Classes Have Fun With Reading Buddies

Kindergarten and Fifth grade students are partnering to work on Character, Attitude, Motivation and Positivity (CAMP). Every other Friday, fifth grade students meet with their kindergarten buddy to discuss a good character trait, read and complete skill building activities.

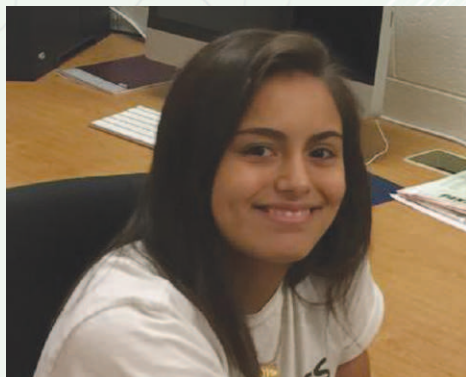

Miley Rice and Hannah Levan

Stella Chen and Bailey Euman are reading with their fifth grade buddies @ NLE. A favorite time for all!

High School Information Technology Student Creates Video

Leilah Castro, a student in Mr Burkhardt's Information Technology class, recently created a video that is featured on the New Lexington High School homepage. Leilah took raw video taken by other students and compiled it into a representation of current activities around the high school.

Mrs. Linda Denton's students find painting relaxing and fun.

Michael Barker is thoroughly engrossed in his art project!

Amy Gedeon's Third Grade Class

Students in Amy Gedeon's third grade Social Studies class work on finding examples of goods and services from magazines. Pictured are (from top) Chase Saylor, Tyler Smith, Rayee Sarver, Nya Reynolds, Billy New, and Gus Pearson.

Food Drive Benefits Hurricane Victims

Some of Ms. Denton's masked heroes helped count the food donations for hurricane relief. Students in NLMS held a food drive for those affected by recent hurricanes.

Astronaut Ice Cream

Peyton Craig, Raegan Euman, Maddie Collins, Joshua McKnight try the delicious treat.

Mrs. Shiplett's 2nd grade class has been learning about astronauts, what they do in space, and how they live when they are in space. This week, they taste tested freeze-dried astronaut ice cream, compared it with regular ice cream, graphed the results, and analyzed the data from the graph.

21st Century Afterschool Program - Ready to Launch!

Teachers at the New Lex Middle School prepare for the new 21st Century After School Program! Teachers train, plan, and prepare to draw in the students after the regular school day ends. Students are eager to begin. Make sure to get your paperwork filled out! Packets of information are available in the school offices. Let the fun begin!