

Steve Fondale, Athletic Director

Steve Fondale is starting his 30th year with New Lexington City Schools and is a 1982 graduate of NLHS. Before taking the helm as Athletic Director, Coach Fondale served as a varsity wrestling head coach/assistant for 25 seasons, assistant football coach, as well as a ten year stint coaching tennis.

He has been a physical education teacher, adapted physical education teacher and currently teaches C.B.I at the high school. His mission is to provide student-athletes a wide range of learning experiences including integrity, teamwork, sportsmanship, and leadership through participation in interscholastic activities.

He attended Muskingum College, where he received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education. He later received his Masters of Science in Education from Marygrove University.

Coach Fondale is married to wife Beth, and has two sons, Ben (26) and Adam (23).

The Athletic Program at New Lexington High School is guided by its mission and core values. Everyone in the school community – student athletes, coaches, staff, administration, parents, and the residents of the community – shares the responsibility for ensuring that these values are reflected in all aspects of the program.

The New Lexington High School Athletic Program fosters excellence, teachers values, and enriches the lives through competitive athletics that challenge student athletes to reach their full potential.

It's great to be a Panther!
