

Todd Brown
Head Baseball Coach
Assistant Football Coach

Todd is a 1981 graduate of New Lexington High School. He has been a teacher with New Lexington City Schools for twenty-six years and Brown has been the Head Baseball Coach for the past six years and prior to that was the Head Softball Coach for seventeen years.

Todd has been coaching football for twenty-seven years.

He has taught Middle School Physical Education and Health for most of his teaching career with New Lexington. He graduated from Ohio University with a Bachelor degree in Physical Education and Health.

Todd and his wife Tisha live in New Lexington with their son Taylor (20) and daughter Tatum (18).

Bill Kimble
Assistant Baseball Coach

Bill is a 1990 graduate of New Lexington High School and is returning to the baseball program. He was employed at The Longaberger Basket Company for seventeen years, and is currently an Industrial Service Technician for Freije RSC.

Along with baseball, he has assisted in coaching varsity softball and football.

Bill currently resides in New Lexington with his wife and four children, Connor (15), Caleb (10), Cole (1), and Cai (3 months). He is married to Shauna (Holman) Kimble, a second grade teacher at Crooksville Primary School.

Danny Miller
Head Baseball Manager

Danny has been a part of the New Lexington Baseball program for the several years.

He has also been a part of the Football where he is the Head Manager and is in charge of the Water Boys and the Ball Boys on game nights. During the week Danny is responsible for making sure practice facilities are open and ready for practices.

Miller has also assisted with the Softball and Basketball programs. Danny enjoys singing, playing the organ, and signing the National Anthem at many New Lexington Athletic events. He is an employee for McDonalds and volunteers at the New Lexington Fire Department.

Dan Morgan
JV Baseball Coach

Dan is the JV Coach. He has also has coache fifteen years of football. He lives in New Lexington with his wife Staci and two children Allee and Gage.

Doug Sheppard
Assistant Baseball Coach

Doug is lifelong resident of New Lexington and is an assistant coach with the varsity baseball team.

He is also in his second year as a member of the football staff.

Doug is in his third year working in the New Lexington City Schools.

He resides in New Lexington with his wife Melissa and has three children Nick (2021 McKenna (20) and Chase (17).

Dennis Welch
Assistant Baseball Coach

Dennis is an Ohio University Graduate. He is entering his twenty-fifth year as varsity assistant in baseball (seven with Coach Brown, ten with Paul Albanese and eight with Tim O'Hare).

He also served twelve years as varsity basketball assistant, (eight with Albanese, three with Ken Stocker and two with Matt Fisher). Welch's mentor and assistant coach for five years was varsity football coach Jim Rockwell and he served five years as Rockwell's assistant. He served 1 year as varsity track coach due to an illness to coach Rockwell

Dennis has coached, and is currently coaching the Zanesville American All-Stars fifteen-sixteen, which is sponsored by the Muskingum Valley Old Timers. He has won one State Championship with this team and he has been selected to three Hall of Fames. While coaching Babe Ruth baseball for 11 years in Somerset, Welch's team compiled a record of 181-33-1 and won nine league championships and had a forty-eight game winning streak. When he retired he started coaching at New Lexington.

Nate Wycinski
Assistant Baseball Coach

Nate is a 2007 graduate of New Lexington High School and a 2011 graduate of Marietta College. He earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree as an Intervention Specialist and is starting his fourth year as an Intervention Specialist at New Lexington Middle School. Nate is entering his seventh year as a member of the football staff and fifth year as a member of the baseball staff.