

THE PANTHER POST

"Sponsored by The New Lexington 21st Century After School Programs."

FFA Students Prep For Planting

Students cleaning out the planter boxes and preparing the planter for the next round of hybrids to be planted.

Beck's Hybrids Seed Advisor, Bryan McCoy (3rd from right) teaches New Lexington FFA members to read a seed tag on a bag of seed corn.

New Lexington School's Farm shown with the barn, planter and tractor, and fertilizer spreader shown from a distance.

Character Award Bowling Outing

New Lexington Middle School thanks Mr. Tim Fiore for recently hosting our "Caught with Character" students. Nearly fifty students enjoyed a few hours of bowling! We also thank Conn's for their donation of potato chips for our "Caught with Character" bowling outing. Thank you both for your support!"

Students from the Middle School are Bowling for Fun! An event to say thank you for the Great Things You do!

YUKON QUEST RACE AT JUNCTION ELEMENTARY

JCE students listen carefully and closely to Laura Neese as she shares about her experience in the Yukon Quest Race. She talks to the students about determination and teamwork.

Career Day Fun THANK YOU ALUMNI!

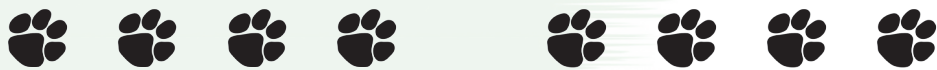

A Big Thank You to all the alumni and career representatives who were involved in our Career Fair Friday, May 4. Over 30 professionals spoke to students about their career fields. This was an awesome time for students to get exposure to possible future career aspirations!

NLHS FFA

NLHS FFA students came to JCE to work with the 5th graders on Thank A Farmer Day. The 5th graders made butter, learned about livestock, were able to pet a piglet, made an animal craft, wrote a thank you letter to a farmer, had an egg relay race and put their handprint on a barn that will hang in the FFA booth at the fair. Check it out when you attend the Perry County Fair!

Project YOU Afterschool Field Trip to the Cemetery

Project YOU students, Katelyn Rainey, Kyle Garey and Kody Hina with NLHS teacher, Sean Bartholic (left) stand behind a Civil War Veteran gravesite in the New Lexington First United Methodist Church cemetery. During a recent preservation project, the students have discovered three Civil War Veterans' gravesites which will be marked for recognition by the Perry County Service Center board. Members of the church, Barb Shiplett, Tom Workman and others not pictured honored the students with a Pizza party and recognition for their exemplary service to the church and community. Students not pictured are: Seth Allen, William Bartholic, Josh Marshall, Cameron Bowen and Richard Bryant.

JCE 5TH GRADERS DANCE AND CELEBRATE LAST DAY OF TESTING

JCE 5th graders dance and celebrate in the hallway to the Air Test Song on the last day of testing!! YES! IT'S OVER!